RICHARD W. WIEKING
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

FOREMOST, I would like to apologize

that I must effectuate this correspondence on a paper back paper, but unfortunately I ~~do~~ have no other means at my disposal. ANYWAY SEVERAL MONTHS AGO I filed an appeal with the Northern district court after a civil complaint I attempted to file was dismissed for my allegedly failure to state a claim on which relief may be granted. the case title was DARRYLE BROWN V. ELOY MEDINA. I WAS at that time incarcerated in Salinas Valley state prison, to which I file a request to the court for leave to amend that was denied.

I then filed a Notice of appeal with a certificate of appealability. I have not yet gotten a response from the Northern district court till date, but ironically the Ninth circuit court has contacted me twice out of turn and in their latter contact or correspondence to me they acknowledge the error. I again contacted the Ninth circuit and request their advice on the matter who NEVER wrote me back. I am now in a quandary in what to do.

I would sincerely appreciate it if you would look into the matter and inform me the status of my Notice that I sent to the Northern District Court.

Thank you for your time, attention and consideration.

Sincerely
Darryl E. Brown
